October 2018

Dear Friend,

Please forgive talk of Christmas before we are even into November but we are quite excited about the Christmas Cards we have printed this year and also a Calendar which for us is something new. Several members have worked together to produce these and we are so pleased with the results. Please see below. Marjorie Gregson designed the 2019 Calendar and it looks lovely. It is A4 size, landscape, and we have already sold several. At £8 each or two for £15 it is a very good buy. There is enough room to write notes in each day and Marjorie chose appropriate pictures from the Collection for each month of the year as is shown in the picture on the right.

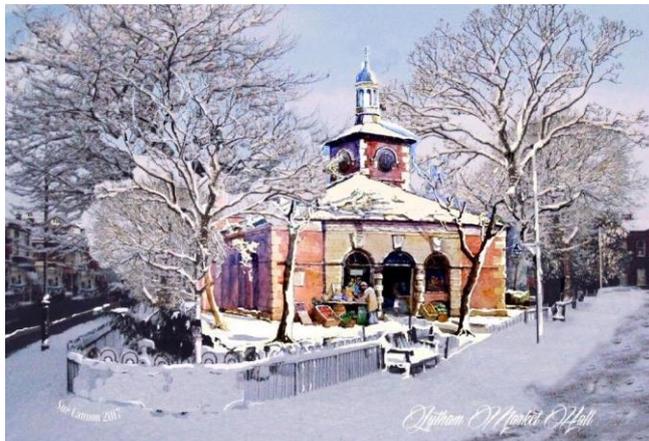

Sue Cannon has worked her magic again this year to create two new Christmas cards. Last year she used Walter Eastwood's Market Hall, Lytham, and added a snowy scene, the effect was beautiful. This year she has cleverly made both 'Startled Deer in a Landscape' and 'In Disgrace' look Christmassy as you can see.

Also this year we have been pleased to get funding to pay for the printing of the calendar and cards. Committee members, Veronica McDonnell and Barbara Weston, between them found a Charitable Trust willing to consider applications for funds and successfully applied for the money to cover our costs.

So it has been a joint effort and I am now playing my part in offering them to you for sale and will deliver them free of charge if you live locally.

The Cards are the same size as last year, A5, and same quality and price, 75p each or 10 for £6. They can be posted in the UK with the usual 1st or 2nd class stamp. It may be more expensive to send abroad.

There are also some of last year's cards left which can be ordered too, 'Market hall, Lytham' and 'Worship of the Heavenly Hosts' shown here. You can mix and match ten for the £6. Please use the form below if you wish to place an order.

Thank you,
Margaret Race
